the young Munich art fair, the producer's art fair "Island of Art Festival" takes place this year, from 22nd - 25th of october, at the exhibition room whiteBOX, "Kult-Fabrik" at east-railwaystation, again abiding their motto "free from booths, free from quotas".

Around 60 of the latest diploma-leaving artists that studied at the national academy of fine arts of Munich and guests, f.e. a performance-group from Kassel and Berlin, exhibiting at the festival. Prof. dr. Wolfgang Ullrich and Peter T. Lenhart, both authors and art historians, participate with readings and stand by for discussions and questions. This year, you have the possibility to visit the artists as well in their studios, their so called treasures. The fair guide serves as well as a studio compass. More informations about the whole project: www.larc-derbogen.de/festival09 This year promoted by "Bayerische Staatsministerium für Wissenschaft, Forschung und Kunst" and "Golart Stiftung", the "Kulturstiftung der Stadtparkasse München", "Bankhaus Metzler" and the art-association "whiteBOX e.V". The city of Munich with her patronage and her department of culture are again supporting the festival. In Sylvie Arlaud's case, the "making of" with its mix of autonomy, unsalaried involvement and collective curating, is unique. As well one can aspect beside high quality of the chosen artists, a cosmopolitan and variegated contemporary art.
